

Shaun & Joy Price

📍 Wales • June 25, 2023

Today, let's pray for two of our missionaries serving in Wales — the small country beside England. Shaun and Joy Price have served in Cardiff, the capital, for about two years. Wales once was a Christian country and a hundred years ago had a huge revival. These days Christians are few and most Welsh people say they are not interested in church.

Shaun and Joy moved with their four children into a part of Cardiff, where many newcomers from other lands live. Their neighbors include people from India, Yemen and many other countries. Shaun and Joy have enlisted all four of their children to share the Gospel as they meet neighbors. They are active in their local church, of course, but they have been slowly getting to know their neighbors. They help widows with home repairs, invite other neighbors to have coffee. They have distributed Gospel messages along with chocolates. They have asked how to pray for their neighbors.

So far, Shaun and Joy have not seen another big revival, which Wales surely needs. But they are slowly building friendships that will lead to people hearing about Jesus. Our church supports Shaun and Joy through our Cooperative Program giving. They are our missionaries.

Let's pray for them now.
