Dr. Adam Groza is president of Gateway Seminary and professor of philosophy of religion. He and his wife Holly have been married since 2000 and have four children: Cosette, Charlie, Christian, and Cate. He is the co-author with J.P. Moreland of Unraveling Philosophy (B&H Academic) and Faith Wins: Overcoming a Crisis of Belief (New Hope Publishers).

Brian Frable is the pastor of Kona Baptist on Hawaii Island and our HPBC president. He served churches in Oklahoma before moving his family to Hawaii. He is a graduate of Lancaster Bible College and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is married to Amanda, a teacher at Makua Lani Christian Academy, and the mother of their six beautiful children.

Craig Webb is our executive director-treasurer. Born and raised in Hawaii, he moved to Tennessee at eleven. He earned his degrees from Samford University (BA), Southern Seminary (MDiv), and New Orleans Seminary (DMin). Craig served churches in Tennessee and Hawaii and worked at Lifeway. Craig is married to Barbara, and they have three grown children and four grandchildren.
